Continuous learning strengthens professional skills and builds career potential. Investment in professional development also attracts and retains the best and brightest employees. It's a win-win for McLaren Port Huron and its workforce.

The McLaren Port Huron Foundation offers several scholarships to employees of McLaren Port Huron and members of the public who are committed to the lifelong learning and career development process. These funds are made available through the generosity of employees who donate to the ETC Fund and community donors who have expressed an interest in supporting the enrichment of health care professionals. Scholarships are awarded to assist students with tuition, purchasing books, lab fees and/or room and board expenses paid through the University.

Along with this completed application, please include the following documents:

- Confirmation of Acceptance into accredited, qualifying program
- One professional letter of recommendation (cannot be a family member)
